

Name: Lew Boehnke

Current City: West Des Moines

Hometown:

Occupation/Career:

Since 1985, Lew has been a travel consultant with The Travel Center of Des Moines. This will be his tenth year in helping plan Dr. Meyer's adventures to Europe. Many people's visions and goals in life include experiencing overseas travel. Making travel a pleasant, rewarding and memorable experience is best accomplished with good planning. This is what travel consultants do best. Lew hopes you find this year's MPA travel experience as pleasant and memorable as past trips have been.

Education:

Lew is a graduate of the American Institute of Business in Des Moines.

Personal/Professional Goals in Participating in SMART 2011:

By participating in this year's class, Lew plans on making many new friendships. Class members, as graduates of the Drake MPA program, will move on to becoming leaders in our communities and beyond.

Lew trusts that your desire to travel will be magnified, and you will consider his service to help complete your future travel dreams.

Personal:

Lew and his wife, Judy, live in West Des Moines near the Jordan Creek Town Center. They have two sons. Their oldest son, Matthew, works with ING Financial Services and lives in West Des Moines with his wife, Alicia, and two small children. Alicia is a graduate of Dr. Meyer's first Drake MPA Program to Europe. Youngest son, Ryan, also of West Des Moines, is employed at Bravo Cucina Restaurant in Jordan Creek Town Center.

Lew looks forward to meeting all of the class participants in the weeks to come and to sharing the exciting experiences on Dr. Meyer's 2010 MPA European trip
